

Review Vol. 9 No. 3 – Table of Contents

Page	Title	Author
2	Honorary Secretary's Report 2008-2010	John Trimble
4	400 years on / Lurgan 400 events	Rosalind Hadden
6	Lurgan time-line: 1610 - 2010	Dr Francis X. McCorry
11	Master M'Gra	John Trimble
12	Clock-making in Lurgan	Charles Gardiner
14	Lurgan's early Quaker settlement	Arthur Chapman
16	Quakers and the Famine in Lurgan	Gerard Mac Atasney
17	Methodist affiliations in Lurgan, 1750-1878	Jack Gilpin
21	Lurgan Free School 1786-1793	Florence Gracey
24	Lurgan's Jewish community	Jim McCorry
27	The Mechanics' Institute opens	John Trimble
30	James McCoo, a social reformer	Kieran M. Clendinning
31	Hand-loom weavers' riots	John Trimble
32	Plantation Portadown	Raymond Gillespie
37	The Manor of Ballyoran	Rosalind Hadden
37	The story of Portadown	Brian Courtenay
44	A brief history of Portadown Foundry	Cardwell McClure
46	Orchids to Orange Lilies: Moira Castle Co. Down, 1689 - 1799	David McFarland & Horace Reid
50	Memories of Moyallon school	Alastair Uprichard
54	John King of Moy	David Armstrong
55	The Enterprize Barge Restoration Project	Elaine Hill
56	Glenavon celebrations	Ruth McCoy
57	Sporting record	Ronald Rosser
58	An 1844 Hand Book
59	Street names of Portadown	Rosalind Hadden
64	List of the Society's current members

Brownlow House — built in the Elizabethan style by Rt. Hon. Charles Brownlow in 1839 to the design of William Henry Playfair whose fine classical buildings gave Edinburgh the title of "the Athens of the North".