

Review Vol. 10 No. 3 (2017) – Table of Contents

Page	Title	Author
2	Honorary Secretary's Report	John Trimble
4	Celebrating our first 50 years	Rosalind Hadden
5	Review, our local history journal	Dr F.X. McCorry
6	Roof construction in traditional houses in the Craigavon area	(reprint) Cooper
7	Links with the Stage Coach (reprint)	(reprint) Anon
8	Field trips remembered	Dr F.X. McCorry
9	First members of the Society
10	Towards Craigavon	Dr Andrew McClelland
16	Making a Museum (History of Craigavon Museum Services)	David Weir
20	Extracts from Journals in Ireland 1747-1789 (Historical references to Craigavon area no. 4)	John Wesley
22	Life in the Annagh, Portadown 50 years ago	Raymond McLoughlin
23	The night the Yanks came to Soye's Mill	Kieran Clendinning
24	My childhood games	Betty Malcomson
26	Death in the Irish Sea	A.G. Sleator
27	A Great War gift	Colin Baxter
28	Commonwealth War Graves in North Armagh	Jim McCorry
32	'Spanish Influenza' in Lurgan and Portadown	Patricia Marsh
35	Fifty years in local medicine	Dr John Adams
38	The Achesons of Portadown	David Llewellyn
42	Seagoe Church and the Baroness Von Stieglitz	Dr Terence Dixon
46	Martha Magee and Magee College	Florence Gracey
48	James Cowan, Lurgan College headmaster 1899-1922	Ian Wilson
52	The Verners of Churchill	Mervyn Gilmour
58	Colonel Saunderson's election	Rosalind Hadden
60	Tommy Donaldson, Lurgan cycle frame builder	John Trimble
63	Lucan connection of local Holocaust survivors	Sheila O'Malley
64	List of current members

Cover Photograph – schematic map of Brownlow, the first sector of the planned "New City" of Craigavon, produced in the early 1970s.